1. The purge of Milovan Djilas resulted from the pressure of the combined provincial apparatuses of the Federation of Yugoslav Communists (FYC), which was led by the leader of the Croatian faction.
2. Djilas' expulsion from his Party posts is causing Tito considerable embarrassment, since it indicates that provincial Party leaders are still heavily imbued with Bolshevik ideology in contrast to the ideology prevalent in the central Party apparatus, which is much more tolerant and is oriented toward winning the West.
